UNISON HEALTH PLAN EARNS DELAWARE MANAGED CARE CONTRACT

Monroeville, PA (February 26, 2007) – Unison Health Plan was awarded a contract by the Delaware Department of Health and Social Services (DHSS) today to provide comprehensive health care services to the state's Medicaid consumers beginning July 1, 2007.

"Unison is proud to be one of only two health plans selected to offer coverage to approximately 110,000 adults and children covered under Delaware's Diamond State Health Plan (DSHP) and the Delaware Healthy Children Program (DHCP)," Stephan Yelenik, President of Unison Health Plan of Delaware, explains. "We look forward to exceeding the expectations of Delaware's Medicaid and DHCP consumers. Unison will work with Delaware community members, health care providers, state and local agencies and other key stakeholders to achieve high quality, yet cost-effective health care."

About Unison Health Plan
