Unison awarded Washington, D.C., contract

Pittsburgh, Pa. (May 2, 2008) – Unison Health Plan has been selected as a Managed Care Organization (MCO) by the Department of Health (DOH) Medical Assistance Administration (MAA) in the District of Columbia.

Unison provides comprehensive physical and behavioral health care services through our subsidiary, Unison Health Plan of the Capital Area. The coverage is available throughout Washington, D.C., and the immediate area, as of May 1, 2008.

Unison offers services in a region of approximately 130,000 enrollees in the DCHFP (District of Columbia Healthy Families Program) and Alliance (Safety Net) programs.

“Unison is proud to have been selected to offer coverage for adults and children covered under the Capital Area, Inc., plan,” said John Blank, MD, CEO of Unison. “Unison will work with community members, health care providers, state and local agencies and other key stakeholders to achieve high quality, yet cost-effective health care. We look forward to exceeding the expectations of the region’s consumers.”

Washington, D.C., is Unison’s sixth Medicaid market. The Pittsburgh-based company has opened an office in the District of Columbia area.
