Promotion Announcement:

Scott A. Bowers named President of Unison Health Plan of Ohio

Monroeville, PA (January 25, 2006) –Scott A. Bowers has been named President of Unison Health Plan of Ohio, part of the family of top-rated Unison Health Plans that includes locations in Pennsylvania, Tennessee, and South Carolina.

“In this new role, I’m honored to bring a promising message of patient-focused healthcare to our members. We’re working for them every day to both increase their access and improve the quality of their care. We do this through true collaborative partnerships with local providers, agencies, and organizations within the communities we serve. I’m fortunate to work with so many quality people at Unison who share these high standards, said Bowers.

Prior to Unison, Bowers dedicated most of his career to breaking down barriers that have historically plagued the underserved Medicaid population. With 10 years of experience managing departmental operations for the largest Medicaid health plan in Illinois, he brings a philosophy of outreach and education to Ohio Medicaid consumers.

About Unison Health Plan

With years of steady growth, Unison Health Plan has become a leader in government-sponsored managed care, serving more than 300,000 members and 15,000 providers in Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Tennessee. Unison was ranked one of the top plans in the country among Medicaid companies by U.S. News and World Report/NCQA America’s Best Health Plans 2005. Unison provides high quality, cost effective health care and responsive customer service that empowers its members and providers to work together for better health.
