Matthew Moore named President of Unison Health Plan of Tennessee

Monroeville, PA (January 25, 2006) – Matthew Moore was recently named President of Unison Health Plan of Tennessee. Moore previously led all business development activities for Unison and was responsible for the Company’s initial expansion into South Carolina and Ohio. Prior to joining Unison, he held a variety of positions with other healthcare companies. Moore has a degree in finance from the University of Memphis and an MBA from Washington University in St. Louis.

“While Unison continues to grow into new markets and products, our mantra hasn’t changed. Unison continues to be brilliant on the basics, answering phones and paying claims. Tennessee continues to present many opportunities to illustrate our mantra here and throughout the Mid-South,” said Moore.

About Unison Health Plan

With years of steady growth, Unison Health Plan has become a leader in government-sponsored managed care, serving more than 300,000 members and 15,000 providers in Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Tennessee.
