There are lots of reasons you may not have health insurance. Maybe you lost your job. Maybe your health benefits don't give you enough coverage. Maybe you just can't afford the high cost. But, your children deserve to be healthy. That's where Unison Health Plan, a UnitedHealth Group Company, can help. Whatever the reason, we want you to know: Yes! You can get affordable health care for your children!

What coverage can Unison offer my children?

Sometimes, it can be hard to find what health programs are out there for your children, but Unison makes the search easy. We specialize in helping families with limited incomes get health insurance. In fact, we can usually offer your children health coverage at no or very little cost. Now, that's good news!

A health plan with experience.

Unison's parent company has provided health insurance for children for 20 years and covers 2.3 million members in more than 20 states, plus the District of Columbia. Plus Unison is part of UnitedHealth Group, one of the largest health and well-being companies in the country.

A health plan you can trust.

Your children are the most precious part of your life. It makes sense to choose a health plan that you trust to care for them. Over one million parents already trust their children's health care to us.

Call us today to give your children the gift of health insurance.
